Alternative CHRISTMASfayre

We're delighted that volumes have come back so quickly this summer. That being said, Christmas 2021 could be challenging to plan for, as volumes remain unknown, so here's how we can help.

By having a range of menus to choose from that cover many different options – traditional and non-traditional – you will be ready to adapt, depending on demand if this changes in the coming weeks and months.

Some of the challenges you may face this year could be:

- Not knowing if customers plan ahead to make bookings
- There may be restrictions in party sizes and restrictions on sharing foods
- Bookings coming in very late if confidence improves later in the year
- If people have booked, managing the risk that there could be increased levels of cancellations
- In all scenarios it could be difficult to predict volumes and plan for the traditional Turkey and Christmas Pudding menu for 30 people

To manage all or some of these, you may want to plan a menu or selection of menus to cope with different party sizes and different menu content so you have something to offer come what may.

What have we done to help?

Our team of experienced chefs have created three simple menus with alternative options to traditional roast turkey with all the trimmings.

These dishes could be used in addition to your traditional menus or instead of should bookings come in very late or change at short notice. They cater for different cost and skill levels.

They can also be used after Christmas as great core winter dishes and specials.

TABLEWARE

Our festive tableware range for Christmas 2021 has elements of the success of last year and some new additions to help give your customers a truly magical dining experience. We have joined up again with Tom Smith, a global brand of Christmas greeting products, to bring you modern and art deco themes featuring on-trend colours to warming traditional designs.

To complement the breadth of range available this year we have again refreshed our tableware collection from Duni. The following pages illustrate the themes with selected crackers, and on pages 74–75 we have combinations of tableware and crackers in a special buying guide.

TABLEWARE BY DUNI

Duni is an ever-present inspiring brand creating a good food mood where people meet and eat – a supplier of attractive and convenient products for all kinds of table settings and take-away.

This year's Duni Christmas collection brings more of the classic festive motifs, uniting warm seasonal colours, comforting tactile surfaces and glittering sparkly touches. It is all about the feel-good factor, offering designs for all occasions inspired by luminous celebrations, and sweet traditions with a nature feel.

CRACKERS BY TOM SMITH

Tom Smith is the premium house brand of IG Design Group UK Ltd. Tom Smith was the originator of the cracker, first developed in 1840. It has been part of British Christmas heritage ever since.

The brand is built on this wealth of experience, and the 2021 collection covers a variety of contemporary and traditional trends that include winter sparkle silver tones and metallic art deco. All designs will appeal to a wide range of consumer tastes.
